EXPERIENCE

Full-Stack Developer · Neweb Labs

April 2023 - Present

- Coding, debugging, refactoring and maintaining code-base for Go (Golang) and Java based REST API backend services deployed in production environment
- Improved system workflow to be optimised for paid and unpaid video streaming, with the relevant security measures, reducing latencies to 120ms
- Wrote 6 core and 5 auxiliary microservices from scratch and took responsibility for seeing it through to completion
- Integrated Payment Gateways, Stripe and RazorPay into the platform using their SDK and writing custom functions wherever required
- Integrated the AWS S3 service and using their SDK wrote low-latency, high performance delivery system of media files for the platform
- Worked as part of the core team for the frontend code-base and developed entire sections of the code-base from inception to production
- Took complete ownership of testing, deploying, and maintaining services for the whole build process, ensuring reliability and high performance
- Implemented comprehensive testing strategies, including unit, integration, and system tests to make a system more robust with coverage of more than 80% of the code-base
- Actively participated in code and design reviews and provided detailed feedback, including selection of suitable frontend technologies
- Also participated in discussions including selection of suitable technologies for frontend, backend or a DBMS

PROJECTS

Portfolio Website - Demo · Code

Made using React which displays all the crucial information about me. It showcases all my talents as a Software Engineer

Conway's Game Of Life - Demo · Code

Made John Conway's Game Of Life simulation in React

It follows the three rules laid down by him to create a truly Zero-Player-Game

You can play around with different designs and it will take your design as seeds for the simulation
